

KIM BORGARO BIOGRAPHY

Kim Borgaro is a professional dancer, choreographer and dynamic teacher. As a member of the Lula Washington Dance Theater she appeared in the 2000 Emmy Awards along with numerous nationwide performances. Kim also danced for famed director Zina Bethune in her multimedia productions “Frost & Fire” in 2007 and “Silent Roar” in 2010. She is also known for her partnership with Robert Gilliam whom she has danced for and assisted in numerous productions including 3 Los Angeles Kaleidoscope Festivals and also his grant recipient debut “Graffiti” at the El Portal Theater. Kim has taught, choreographed and performed in Hong Kong, Brazil, Australia and Canada as well as New York, Los Angeles and many other US cities. She has performed in music videos and commercials for Lionel Richie, Stevie Wonder, and Michael Jackson, to name a few.

Kim has always been passionate about dance, music and art and also has special love for working and teaching dance. Kim is on faculty at El Camino College where she has taught for over 16 years and serves as a judge and instructor for Spotlight Dance. In 2011 she co-founded On The Edge Dance Youth Dance Ensemble, a pre-professional dance company for dancers ages 8-18. In 2014 she opened On The Edge Dance Studio with partner Robert Gilliam.